

Photo Feature

Wolf Pack participate in Cultural EVENTS

Photos by Capt. Chris Karns, 8th FWIPA

Technical Sgt. Mark Briggs, 8th Fighter Wing Legal Office and Master Sgt. Ken Horvath, 8th Fighter Wing Career Assistance Advisor sample the local cuisine during a tour of Jeonju. A group of about 20 people from the Wolf Pack were treated to a day of tours by the Jeonju city government. The day's activities included free tours of the Jeonju National Museum, city hall, the Hansol Paper Museum, a trip to the Jeonju International Film Festival and an authentic Korean meal.

Left: Kim, Tae Bok instructs Staff Sgt. Randall Swisher, 8th Civil Engineer Squadron on the art of making paper from scratch, as Swisher shakes out loose ingredients from a tray at the Hansol Paper Museum in Jeonju. Museum employees walked tour participants through the process of how to make paper by hand. Above: Senior Airman Jason Irwin, 8th CES, stamps his souvenir with a Hansol Paper Museum stamp after completing his paper project.